I.
INTRODUCTION

Yale & Baumgarten, LLP was employed by the Debtor, Dana Linett as special counsel via an order of this Court that was executed on August 26, 2021. (Docket No. 256 (confirming tentative ruling Docket No. 252.) Eugene P. Yale, on behalf of his firm, respectfully requests this Court to award, as an administrative expense for services rendered in connection with these bankruptcy proceedings, the sum of $10,000 for professional fees, which represents fees accrued (as capped by the Fee Agreement) during the time period from August 26, 2021 through January 10, 2022. This is Yale & Baumgarten, LLP's first fee application.

II.
NARRATIVE SUMMARY

On July 29, 2021, the Debtor, Dana Linett (the "Debtor"), herein filed a petition for relief in this Court pursuant to 11 U.S.C. The Debtors applied to employ Yale & Baumgarten, LLP to review the underlying litigation files from Debtor's divorce proceeding against Barbara Linett, San Diego Superior Court case no. D545205, and analyze the merits of Debtor's claims for Legal Malpractice against (a) Julia Garwood, Casey Reeves, and Julia M. Garwood, a Professional Law Corporation, the Law Offices of Julia M Gatwood, APLC dba Garwood Family Law & Mediation Law Offices, and/or Mediation Center of Julia M. Garwood, APC (collectively "Garwood Parties"); (b) Linda Cianciolo (and any law firm or entity with whom she may have been affiliated during the relevant time); and/or (c) Linda Pabst de Leon (and any law firm or entity with whom, she may have been affiliated during the relevant time).

Yale & Baumgarten, LLP reviewed and analyzed the files and records of the Debtor in order to determine the Debtor's claims for Legal Malpractice. While Yale & Baumgarten, LLP was performing its retained tasks, Debtor's claims were assigned to Thomas Hebrank, Liquidating Trustee, pursuant to the Joint Liquidating Plan of Reorganization filed September 16, 2021. After a diligent review of materials Yale & Baumgarten, LLP has discussed the merits of Debtor's claims with the Trustee and Trustee's counsel with the Debtors in detail. There are presently two legal malpractice complaints pending litigation in the San Diego Superior Court styled Linett v. Garwood, case number 37-2016-00021440-CU-PN-CTL and Linett v. De Leon, case number 37-2021-00039806-CU-PN-CTL. Because those lawsuits are pending and are the subject of ongoing litigation, Yale & Baumgarten, LLP's analysis, findings, and opinions, are

1 intentionally omitted from this application pursuant to the Attorney Client Privilege and Attorney
2 Work Product Doctrine.

The Debtor selected the law firm of Yale & Baumgarten, LLP because of its experience in rendering counsel to clients with professional negligence claims against their former attorneys. Yale & Baumgarten, LLP, has extensive experience in litigation matters specifically related to claims of legal malpractice as well as family law litigation. Mr. Yale has over forty years of experience in litigation matters (and over 25 years in the malpractice area), Mr. Baumgarten has nearly thirty years of experience in litigation matters (and over 15 years in the malpractice area), and Ms. Yale has over 10 years of experience litigating family law matters (and has been extensively involved in the firm's malpractice litigation during those years as well). Yale & Baumgarten, LLP has represented clients in various trials against legal practitioners.

Family Law litigation matters involving assets and businesses such as Debtor's are usually complicated and intense, and this particular case has a substantially longer and more complex procedural history (both pre- and post-judgment) than most divorces. Therefore, it was necessary to employ special counsel experienced in such litigation as it relates to and arises from specific aspects of family law litigation and procedure. Because of Yale & Baumgarten, LLP's extensive experience in the area of legal malpractice as well as family law litigation in particular, the Debtor believed it would be best suited to assist the Debtor and Debtor's counsel in the adversarial matter. Due to the complexity and intensity of the underlying litigation and its complicated/involved procedural history, the Debtor believed the employment of Yale & Baumgarten, LLP was necessary to ensure the full and effective analysis of his potential legal malpractice claims against his former attorneys.

III. CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, your applicant prays that upon hearing in this matter, the Court issue an order:

1. Approving professional attorneys' fees of Yale & Baumgarten, LLP, from August 26, 2021 through January 10, 2022 in the amount of $10,000 as capped by the retainer agreement;

2. Authorizing payment of the same;
  3. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

Dated: January 12, 2022
